

KT Rajan joined the British High Commission in 2019. He is the Cluster Head - Technology & Innovation for India & South Asia, in the Department of International Trade . He is also the Deputy Head of the Mission, at the British Deputy High Commission in Bangalore, which is responsible for Karnataka & Kerala.

Prior to joining the UK Government, KT Rajan has done a variety of Top management roles in the Private Sector. He has over three decades of Industry experience in Multinational Companies covering varied functions, across different continents. He is a certified Corporate Director & a multidisciplinary professional. Rajan has won several International, National awards and an accomplished global business leader. He is a veteran in the Information & Communication Technology (ICT) and Chief Info' Officer ( CIO) communities.

KT Rajan is a graduate mechanical engineer with a master's degree in Industrial engineering & Business Management. He is a British Chevening fellow & an alumnus of London school of economics.