

RS Mani is Deputy Director General in National Informatics Centre Ministry of Electronics & IT, Government of India.

Graduated from Birla Institute of Technology & Science, Pilani(1982-86) in the year 1986 and he started his career with Microprocessor Application Engineering Program (UNDP and Government of India initiative). This was with the aim to promote the use of Microprocessors in various sectors of economy to increase the productivity. Application of automation in various sectors like Road research, Railways , Water treatment plants etc. were some of these technologies were used.

In the year 1996 he moved on to the head quarters of NIC at CGO Complex to work on the Internet Services to the Government. Established first Direct Internet Gateway with KDD Japan. Since then he has been working in the area of Internet Protocols and services, Network design and data center design etc.

Worked in various International Projects:

Chair of Governors in Asia Connect Project (24 member country research education network)

ICT bilateral project with Govt. of Lao PDR to setup a National Data Centre in Vientiane.

As security expert to the Asian Productivity Organisation (APO) in October 2004 in Mongolia.

Creation of IT facility atMongolia by the name of Aatal Bihari Vajpayee Centre of Excellence in IT, Mongolia

UNDP fellowship program in the area of Microprocessor Application Engineering.

He has been a member in various technical committees in various National Level Projects like GEM, GSTN, CBDT, CBIC, CBI, FIU, Delhi Police etc.Heis currently working as a Head of Group at NIC heading the following divisions.

- Aarogyasetu Project
- NKN: Project director for the flagship project of Government of India called National Knowledge Network (6000Crores 2010-2020) connecting over 1700+ institutions of repute
- NIC-CERT: The emergency response division takes care of the SOC for the complete NICNET.
- Mail & SMS division with 2.6 Million Government Users.
- Satellite Division
- NICNET