

Sushma Vasudevan is a Managing Director and Partner at BCG, has 15+ years of experience and leads BCG India's work in agri and allied sectors. She has deep expertise in working across the agri value chain with both public sector and private sector clients. She is also a core member of BCG Global advantage group and works across multiple topics including new business development, growth strategy, long-term transformation.