

Amit is an alumnus of Columbia University from where he completed the coveted Digital Business Leadership program. He also holds masters in Business administration with concentrations in Marketing & Finance from Faculty of Management Studies (FMS), Delhi and Bachelors in Technology in Electrical Engineering from National Institute of Technology (NIT), Kurukshetra.

At GE Healthcare, Amit is a part of the Leadership Team and heads the businesses of LCS & LCS Digital, for India & South Asia Region. LCS as business is about critical care life saving equipment that include Anesthesia Workstations, ICU Ventilators, Monitoring Solutions, Diagnostic Cardiology and Maternal & Infant care equipment. Amit also leads GE Healthcare Initiative in South Asia, on possible business partnerships.

Prior to joining GE, Amit was an Entrepreneur running a Healthcare Start-up, which he was able to successfully exit. He has over 22 years of Senior Management and Leadership, multi-industry and multi-geography experience with stints in Consumer Discretionary Company namely Asian Paints, Banking Domain where he worked for CitiBank, and Healthcare Industry, where he worked for Johnson & Johnson, Zimmer Biomet and Smith & Nephew. Amit has extensively worked across India, South Asia, Mozambique, Philippines, Indonesia, and Singapore.

Apart from being a Senior Executive Leader of the Healthcare Industry, Amit is an Experienced Growth and Opportunity Professional, a Disruptive Ideas Person, and a Start-up Enthusiast. As a Family they are associated with multiple Philanthropic Initiatives in the areas of Education, Sanitation, & Environment Conservation.